Information

Leongatha Art & Craft Society Inc. was established in 1973. The society manages the Leongatha Gallery which sells original art and craft created, in a wide variety of techniques by member artists and craft people from the Gippsland area. Staffed only by volunteers, this is a not-for-profit venue and commission on the sales contributes to operating costs.

LACS monthly meetings are the 4th Thursday of the month, 9:30am at Community House.

Sub-groups meet regularly and organize workshops. Details of upcoming events are available at the gallery.

Rules of the Society

1. Only LACS members are invited to sell their art/craftwork in the gallery shop, unless decided otherwise by the LACS committee. As a LACS member you will be given your membership/stock record number.

2. LACS reserve the right to limit the number of items by a member displayed for sale at any one time and to not accept items brought in to the shop. The criteria for not accepting items will be clearly communicated to a member.

3. Items for sale must be entered for sale in the 'Stock Book' under the member's number according to instructions provided. Items must be identified with a removable tag/sticker stating the price, member's number and stock number.

4. Items for sale must be then left in the back storeroom for the shop display committee to assess, approve and put on display in the gallery shop.

5. The Committee has authority to accept / reject stock which must be made/crafted by a member and considered to have elements of handcrafts or artwork skills i.e. plain machine sewn objects will not be accepted.

6. If you can help with Gallery duty, commission will be reduced from 30% to only 15% from your marked prices.

7. The Gallery takes all reasonable care of members work, but it is Members responsibility to ensure their work is in good condition and correctly priced while it remains in the gallery.
